From Emmy Award-winning writer Rachel McRady comes a vital, illuminating debut novel about memory, storytelling and a broken family uniting in the face of a terrifying crisis

Inspired by the author's relationship with her own grandfather who passed away in 2017 after battling dementia, Sun Seekers is an earnest exploration of memory, parenthood and what it means to lose those we love, even when they are still with us

Tackles topical book club themes (memory and storytelling, complicated family dynamics, single parenthood, marriage breakdown & grief) in a realistic and uplifting way

Perfect for fans of Fredrik Backman, Clare Pooley, Mark Haddon and Nicholas Sparks, as well as the hit TV series Parenthood and This Is Us

Rachel McRady is a writer and editor for Entertainment Tonight and a 2022 Emmy Award winner, with extensive media connections

THE BOOK

Six-year-old Gracie Lynn is perpetually curious and bighearted. Convinced she knows how to save her beloved grandfather John from the 'worm' that is eating his brain - a metaphor her mother once used to explain John's dementia and sundown syndrome - Gracie helps him break out of his nursing home, and the two disappear together on a quest to chase the sun.

But what is an adventure for Gracie is a nightmare scenario for her estranged parents, LeeAnn and Dan. There's no way to predict where John might have taken their young daughter, or if he's capable of keeping her safe.

An emotionally resonant novel, Sun Seekers artfully explores the truths of parenthood, the ways in which we sometimes hurt those we love most and the universal experience of deep loss - even when the person is still here.
